McAuley High School

Cincinnati, Ohio Conducted by the Sisters of Mercy

Life is made up of the ups and downs that every person must go through. Life is going to soc hops and Frisch's and picnics and drive-ins. It is all the good times you have just being yourself. It's feeding the ducks at the park & buying balloons at carnivals. It's just being with all your friends. Life is running down the halls late for a class & it's two points off for chewing gum. It's getting your class sweater five months late. When we think back on all these times, we realize they are past. We remember them all with good feelings, but they are gone and we must keep on living.

Life — so they say is but a game and they let it slip away

Time comes and goes;
seasons come and go;
friends come and go;
but love unlike these has only just begun.
It will linger on and on until . . .

*Love — like the Autumn sun should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead they don't see just where we're going And all the secrets in the universe whisper in our ears
And all the years will come and go
And take us up always up*

To a child dreams seem so far off but as time goes on they come closer to reality. In your childhood days you had no worries or choices of what college to go to, what courses to take, or what profession to start in. But now you have them and your dreams become more complex and nearer to now. Don't be all absorbed in the worries or responsibilities; go on and try to fulfill your dreams.

If dreams are in the hands of fools, nothing is accomplished because they are left unfulfilled. A dream begins small and as time progresses, so does the dream. As it progresses it either turns into reality or ends in the familiar pop!

*Dreams — so they say
Are for the fools
& they let them drift away*

Angel John O'Connor
announces to McAuley students that peace is in regard to self—tranquility of mind,
family — concordance, friends — harmony, and nations — universal unanimity.

*Peace — like the silent dove should be flying but it's only just begun Like Columbus in the olden days
we must gather all our courage Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away all our fears
And all the years will come and go
and take us up always up*

So I wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy
I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile
I may never pass this
way again
That's why I want it with you
'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend, like I'm the journey & you are the journey's end
I may never pass this
way again.

A tear of laughter;
A tear of pain;
A tear of victory;
A tear of defeat;
But all in all, tears
Do not flow easily.

*Life so they say is but a game and they let it slip away.
Love like the Autumn sun should be dying but it's only just begun.
Like the twilight in the road up ahead they don't see just where we're going.
And all the secrets in the universe whisper in our ears
and all the years will come and go and take us up always up.
Dreams, so they say, are for the fools and they let them drift away.
Peace, like the silent dove, should be flying but it's only just begun.
Like Columbus in the olden days we must gather all our courage sail our ships out on the open sea, cast away all our fears and all the years will come and go and take us up always up.
So I wanna laugh while the laughing is easy
I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile
I may never pass this way again. That's why I want it with you.
'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend.
Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end.
I may never pass this way again.*

FRESHMEN.

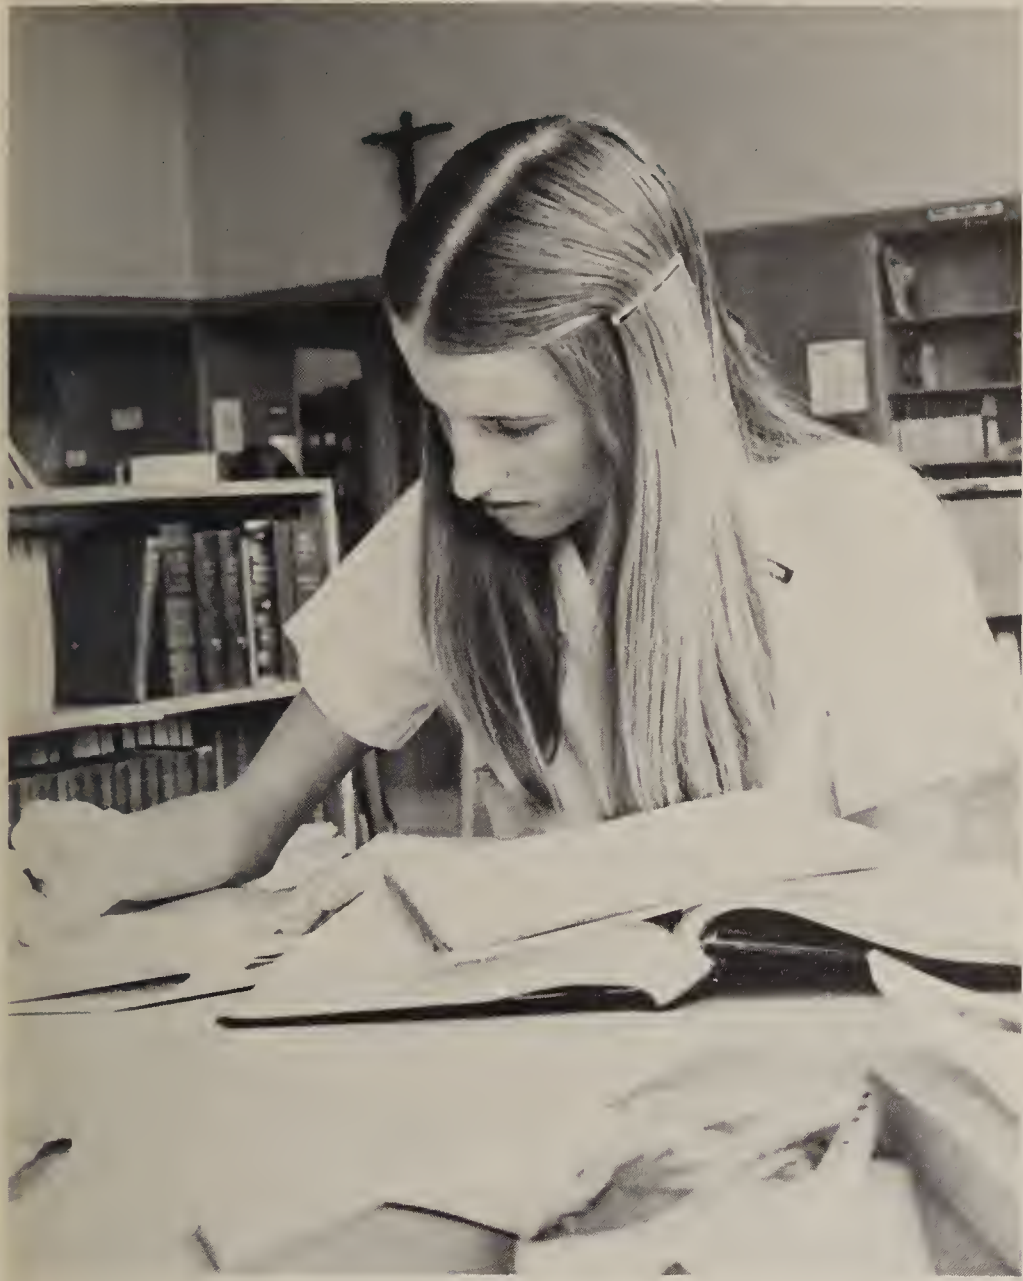

FRESHMEN.

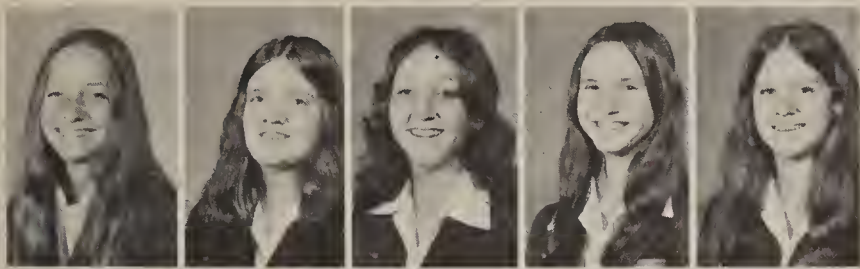

FRESHMAN EQUATION

schedules + books + uniforms + strange classrooms + new faces + conduct cards + namepins + exams + general confusion = FRESHMEN.

Studying in the library, new art supplies,
learning to take notes, and inspecting new books, all help to complete the Freshman Equation.

Junior Ring Ceremony

Three years behind—
one more to go.
Finally,
a ring,
a symbol of Seniors,
of the last and the best year of McAuley.

J. Hudepohl, L. Paterson, and G. Matson feel pressure of exams.

I forgot to shave this morning.

"I want my Maypo," says Sue Masur.

The "eyes" have it.

"Who made the salad?"

Can you "CAN-CAN"?

M. Knue and A. Wujek share "Honors".

SENIORS...

SENIORS OF '74

What makes a Senior?
Ups and downs — smiles and frowns — plenty of friends all around.
We've set the pace —
we've left our trace —
Class of '75 will take our place.

McAuley Moon-Maids. "The heck with the diets" say, S. Dumont, S. Reenan and J. MacDonald. Unity is the best policy.

BIG-LITTLE SISTER
DAY

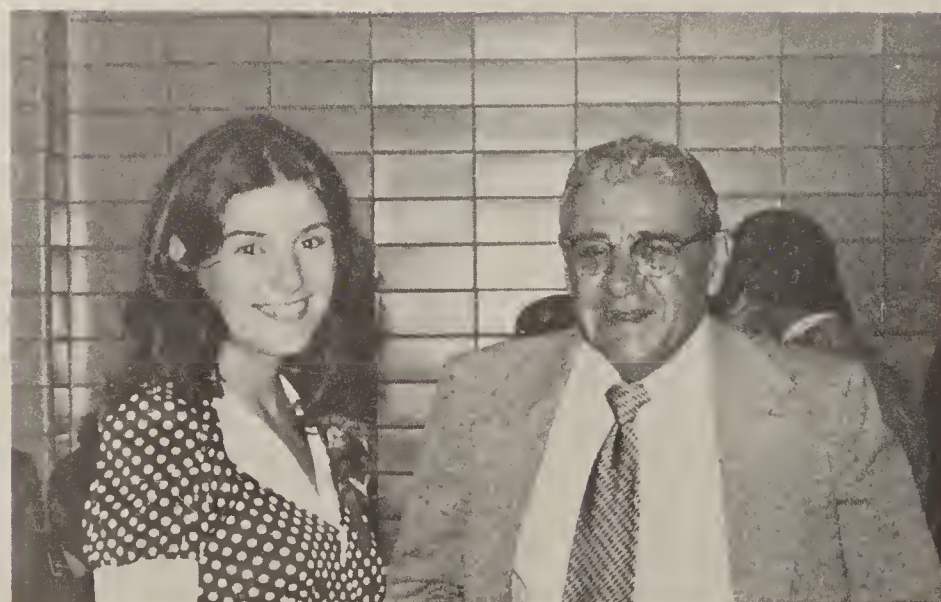

New found friends like family — fun amid the bugs the heat the mugginess the games the chicken Red Rovers frisbees smiles laughs teachers grabbing food and students clapping cookie crumbs yells jumps screams and no-school free time with non-family yet real family Big and Little Sisters. Give a hand and share the warmth found in new found friends. — Deb Conradi (opposite page) Michele Giuliani opens the show. "Jung" at heart. Sisters of "74" and "77" unite. (this page left, top-bottom) C. Demyan makes a dreary donkey! This freshman knows what its all about. Colleen and Mary portray Tigger. Seniors don't monkey around. (right) Class President, Su Brakers, steals the show. Mary Kay Murray "hoots" in the senior skits. Senior, Joan MacDonald, pours on the charm. "What's up doc?" asks senior Gina Shea.

DADDY'S LITTLE GIRL

The girls all in frills and curls, the men all sharp and clean shaven.
Escorted into the hall smelling, of flowers and of different perfumes.
The girls were whirled around the floor,
the men all smiled with pride.
Cause it seemed like only yesterday,
she was calling him daddy,
and today she's calling him father.
Still they will always be Father and Daughter.

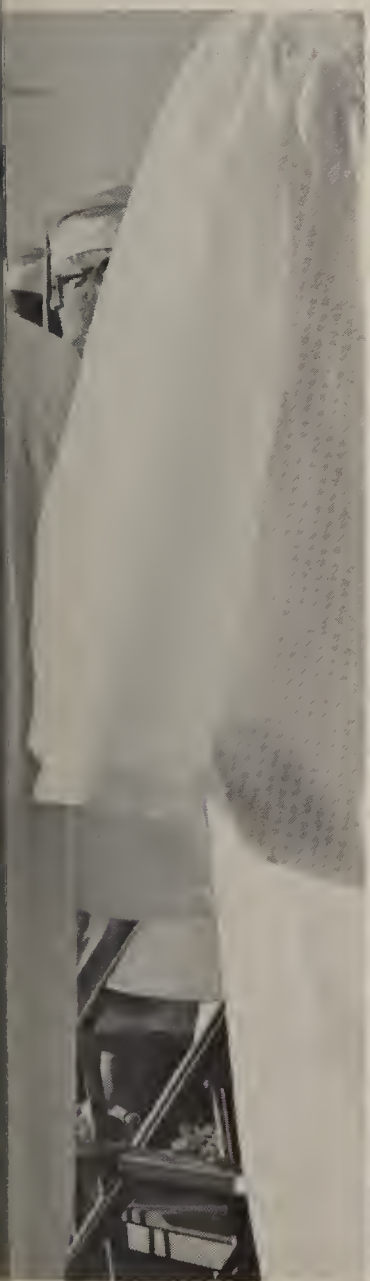

(Opposite left, top-bottom) Pouring on the charm is Vicky Schneider. N. Kief gets into the groove. "Hi guys!" says P. Doran. Presenting C. Meyer and her million dollar smile. (opposite right) "Tonight my laddie is my daddy," says Rosy. The Lawson kids dance with life and laughter. The smiles the world awaited. Birthday boy at the Dad-Daughter Dance. (this page, left) P. Schmitz follows her dad's footsteps. Debbie and Sue get it together. (right) "Good to the last drop!" The Blessings are blessed with becoming the royal couple.

A rounding out closing the circle ending beginning new life spinning outward, inward:
 (we shall become what we are) passing ourselves again and again until we reach the pivot point

Once we walked in the fields of childhood, dreaming about the world of tomorrow (tomorrow — that was so far away).

Now as we stand on the threshold of tomorrow,
I look back on my childhood dreams and say "thank you"
— thank you for making my dreams turn into realities — This is what makes today the greatest time of all.

Live for today!
Be Thankful of yesterday, and Greet Tomorrow with open arms.

Potpourri '73 and '74

Get together and talk to each other.
All kinds of people should reach out and help one another.
Old kind of people should try to listen to young kind of people, should try to listen and comfort each other.

Strings of popcorn balls,
 Candy canes and tinsel
 Tops adorn the dreams
 I dream, the thoughts I think
 And my memories of Christmas past Sitting on the fire, around Rosy red cheeks of smiling faces,
 Listening to the songs.
 We sing, watching snowwhites Dance outside the window pane of My memories of Christmas past.
 Now the songs and dance
 Of Christmas present
 Warm my heart, redden my cheeks,
 Touch my memories—
 Ornamented glows of the night—
 I'll dream on.

Debbi Conradi — 1974

Memories Of Christmas Past 1973

Looking out the window
Through the frosted glass,
My mind went back to yesterday;
The days of Christmas past.
I could see sleds and horses
And rivers covered with ice
Popcorn balls, cookies and fudge,
A house all warm and nice.
I remember when having little mattered none
And the riches that you had Came with the love from someone.
I could dream a long while
About the days gone by,
But dreams will never bring back
The old-fashioned Christmas.

Karen Fazzio — 1974

And It Goes On And On . . .

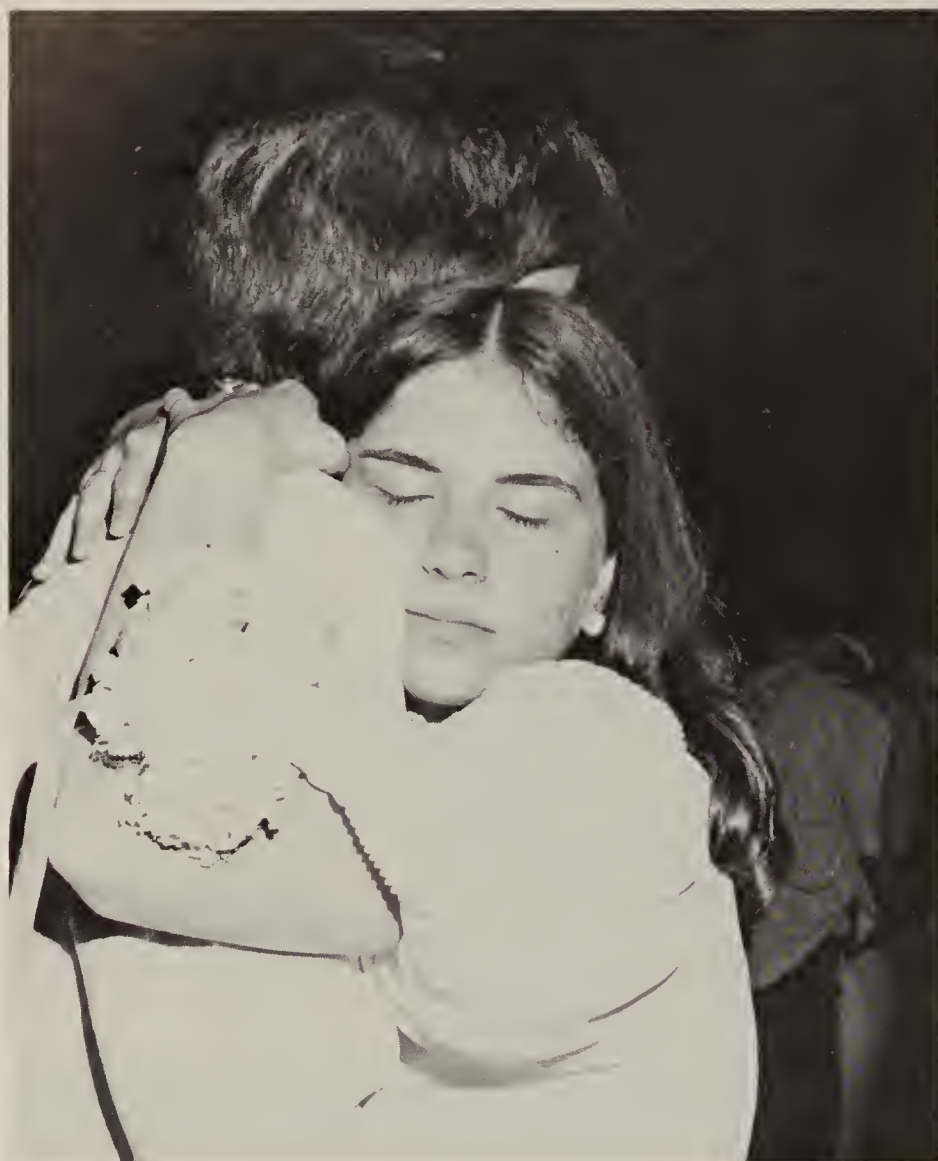

Juniors V. O'Connell, K. Herrmann and their dates cross the bridge to watch the river run. "But I do feel like dancing" says M. Moors. M. Budke and date dance to the music of Day. Rumor has it J. Guenthner's date wore red gym shoes with his tux. Hey, I know you! L. Klein is telling secrets.

The royalty share a moment alone on the dance floor. Prom court: Maura Budke, Peg Doran, Alice Kramer, Queen — Kim Holthaus, Pam Denier, Sue Orth. Prom queen Kim Holthaus and king Bo Miller.

D. Frey is content with quiet thoughts. Memories of a beautiful night.
 "Are you busy next year at this time?" asks Junior, B. Hemsath.

On April 27, 1974 Convention Center was aglow with a shimmering river, floating candles, and the shine of many McAuley juniors and seniors. The music was by Day. Kim Holthaus and Bo Miller were crowned king and queen, and the theme was from Loggins and Messina. It goes something like this:

And it goes on and on, watching the river run
 Further and further from things we've done Leaving them one by one.
 And we have just begun, watching the river run.
 Listening, learning and yearning,
 Run river run.

Watching The River Run

Harvest

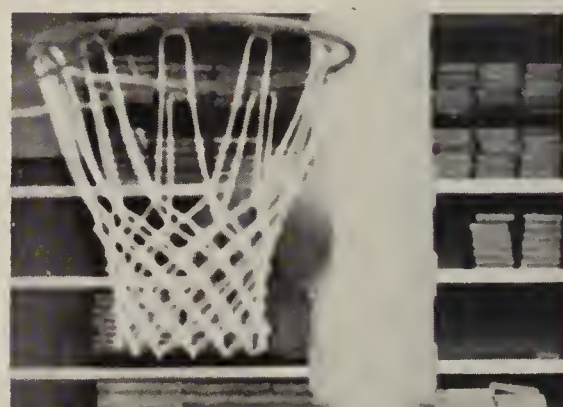

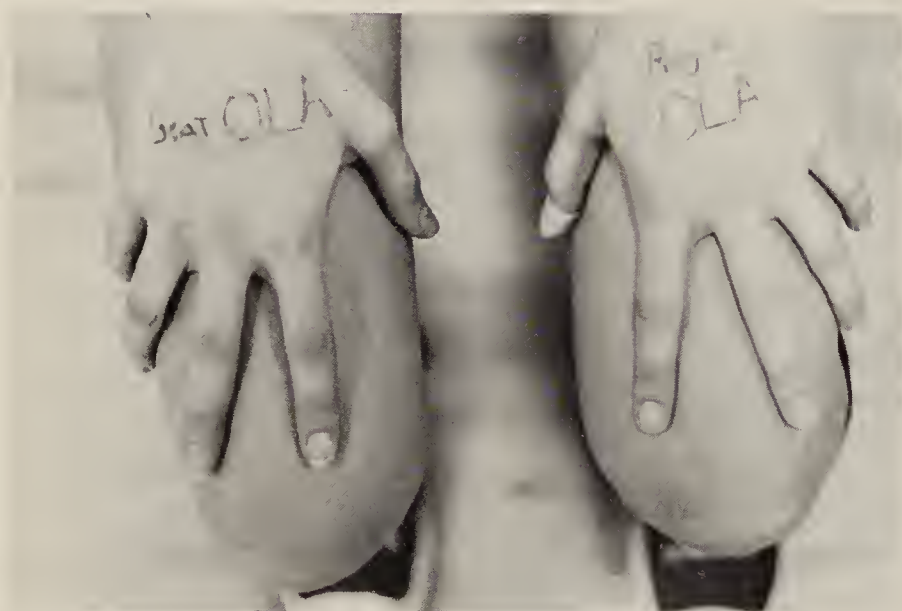

November 3, 1973. Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors dance to the music of Sunny Daze. Autumn leaves transform McAuley's cafeteria into a stage for memories. The theme was "Harvest".

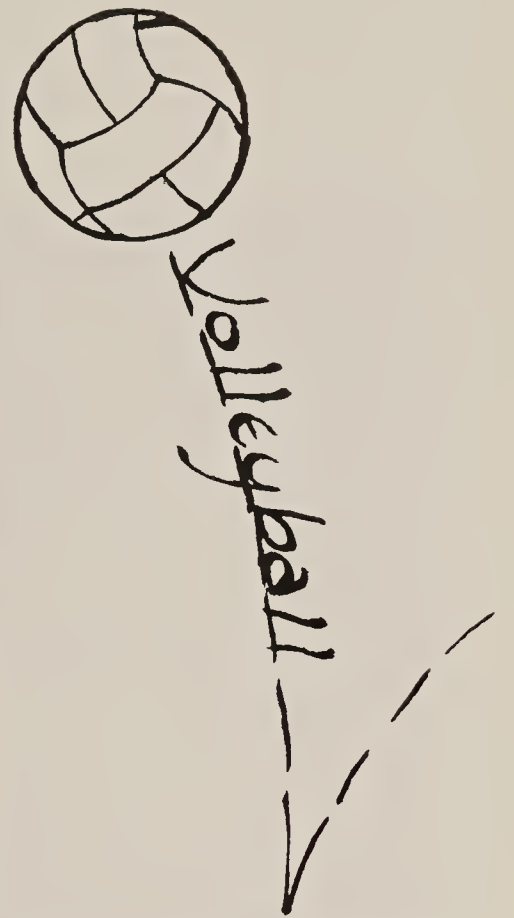

McAuley made an unusually big splash this year with the start of the swim team. Aiken's pool provided the necessary H₂O for the team's practices. Smiling team members display waterlogged enthusiasm.
